

HK Express Offers Exclusive Tokyo Transportation and Attraction Pass
The Low-Fare Airline Further Enhances its Inflight Product

Hong Kong, 23 October 2015 Heading to Tokyo this fall or winter? HK Express is delighted to offer yet another exclusive service, ensuring that Guests' next trip to Japan starts and ends on a good note.

Hong Kong's most on-time airline has cooked up an exciting service which is tailored for its Guests flying into Haneda Airport: discounted Keikyu Hanetoku train tickets connecting the airport with Sengakuji Station. The convenient route connects Guests directly with Tokyo's JR line, which makes for an easy, stress-free trip into the city.

"We're doing everything we can to make sure our Guests have the best service and the very best prices," said Andrew Cowen, CEO of HK Express. "Affordable travel is one of the pillars of our brand, and we believe that should extend to door-to-door savings whenever possible. We're excited to help our valued Guests get the most out of Tokyo and start off their vacation on the right foot."

The exclusive Keikyu Hanetoku Tickets are just one of dozens of in-flight deals provided by HK Express. The low-fare airline also offers discount entrance tickets to the Heiwajima Natural Hot Spring (onsen) near Haneda, which includes a free shuttle bus from Tokyo-Haneda Airport to the onsen. It is a great way to start or end a trip to the chaotic capital.

For those flying into Tokyo-Narita Airport, HK Express offers great deals on airport limousine bus tickets from the airport to Shinjuku. Guests can also explore the beauty of Hakone area easily by getting a 2-day Odakyu Hakone Free Pass, which covers sought-after spots including Lake Ashi and Owakudani.

Acquiring an exclusive Tokyo transportation and attraction pass is a simple process — just purchase a ticket from a cabin crew member onboard an HK Express flight and approach the respective counters at the airport arrival lobby with a stamped receipt.

Heading to Osaka? Ask about the 20 percent in-flight discounts on Nankai Railway fares, which connect the Kansai International Airport with the convenient entertainment district of Namba. Likewise, onboard flights to Japan, HK Express offers similar deals on three- and five-day JR Kyushu rail passes that will make exploring the picturesque island a breeze.

If Guests are in the market for useful travel gear as well as luxury goods and liquors, be sure to pick up the airline's brand new inflight duty-free magazine, U'order, which has been revamped this month to debut a fresh look and a slew of exclusive new products.

Over the past two years, the low-fare airline has recognized the overwhelming demand for travel to Japan and has responded by ramping up its routes and services. Guests flying HK Express enjoy easy access and affordable fares to 5 destinations in Japan including Tokyo-Haneda, Tokyo-Narita, Osaka-Kansai, Fukuoka and Nagoya-Chubu. The airline will continuously expand its roadmap in Japan, including the upcoming launch of Hiroshima. HK Express leads the way in the Hong Kong-Japan market as the largest low-fare airline in terms of frequency and capacity.

About HK Express

Independent flight statistic monitoring website flightstats.com has already recognised HK Express for its top On-Time-Performance (OTP) rate. The airline has become a leader in the Hong Kong aviation industry by concentrating on low fares, best-in-class on-time performance and safety while revolutionizing air travel throughout the Asia market. The airline also received a “7-star safety rating”, the highest ranking possible from airlineratings.com, an independent, industry-respected research group. HK Express flies to 18 of the most popular destinations in Asia, including the newly-launched routes to Hiroshima in Japan (commencing 27 October). It is expected to launch Yangon and Mandalay in Myanmar and Luang Prabang in Laos in early 2016. With its fast growing fleet and enticing number of destinations, HK Express has flown 3 million Guests – a major achievement that attests to the popularity of the airline.
