HK Express Adds 15 More Flights for Winter Travel Season
Mega Sale starting from HKD88

Hong Kong, 7 December 2015 Hong Kong's most on-time airline is preparing the best gift for all travel lovers: more flights to popular Asian cities! And to top it off, the Christmas Mega Sale is back! Be prepared for fantastic year-end deals with fares starting from HKD88* on all popular Asian routes across the airline's network.

To ring in the holiday travel season, HK Express will be offering special Christmas fares starting from HKD88* for most of its routes from 8 to 15 December 2015. The travel period begins 15 December 2015 and extends all the way to 29 October 2016. The airline will announce the destinations on sale every 48 hours. Guests can stay tuned for amazing fares to hot new routes such as Hiroshima, Japan.

To satisfy the travel demand, HK Express is adding 15 new weekly flights to hot — and cold — destinations that are perfect for a winter getaway. The low-fare airline has added one extra flight to Wuxi, Siem Reap and Phuket. Wuxi is well-known for its beautiful river views and special cuisine culture. There are also two extra flights per week to Ningbo, Nagoya as well as Chiang Mai. Three additional routes are being added to Taichung and Da Nang which provide more convenient options for values Guests.

"We are so thankful to all the loyal Guests who have been supporting HK Express," said Andrew Cowen, CEO of HK Express. "We have seen exponential growth on low-fare air travel demand. With our year-end amazing offers and increased flight frequency, we want to make travelling as easy and affordable as possible for our Guests to explore Asia. "

Even more impressive, HK Express has managed to ramp up its routes and services in a sustainable fashion. The airline now flies to 20 of the most popular destinations in Asia, and is expected to launch some sought-after routes including Luang Prabang in Laos, Guam and Saipan. The low-fare airline has increased its aircraft fleet, hired new crew members, focused on air safety and maintained impressive on-time performances — all the while keeping fares among the lowest in the region.
